

St. JOSEPH SCHOOL DISTRICT, St Joseph, Missouri

Dr. Hill was the educational planning consultant to the district and played a strategic role in convincing the school board and community of the benefits of a district-wide master plan.

Dr. Hill became a consultant to UNICOM and BDLL Architects. In this regard Hill provided the following services:

- Master Planning presentations to the community – over 500 attendees
- Standards and size determination
- Future Trends presentations
- Staff workshops to identify K-12 need
- Application of future trends and standards to prototypical schools
- Workshop with designers and district to develop options for implementation.
- Coordination with Career Technology facilities

He is helpful with regards to the media, interviews on the radio, and considering issues of a political or marketing nature as the Master Plan develops.
